Dangjin-si

당진시 · Dangjin-si

You left your plans at home, right? Then you're all set.

Hi there!
I'm Dokko, your guide at Amudena.
I'm actually a burr seed, the kind that hitches a ride on passersby's clothes and travels.
This time, I'm sticking to you!

"Amudena" is Korean for "anywhere." Wherever the wheel lands, that's where you're going.

Amudena travel rules

Just four promises before we go!

NO apps
Phone for calls and camera only! Let the rest take a nap.

NO reservations
Pick your stay and your meals when you get there. Kinda exciting, right?

NO GPS
Find your way with a paper map and by asking the locals.

NO expressways
National and local roads only. You see more when you go slow.

How to use this book

Stay 1 Eat 1 Café 1 See 1 Stay 1, Eat 3, Café 1, See 2... calling things by number is handy.
Like "Call Stay 3!"

- We haven't been there ourselves. But you can call and judge for yourself. So what will you choose?
- We left out prices on purpose. If you're curious... yep, call them.
- As of October 2026. Different from what you see? That's travel too!
- Bring your own paper map. I'm a seed, so I don't have one. I just stick on and go.

What's Dangjin-si like?

I'll tell you just a little of what I know.

A seaside city at the end of the Seohae Bridge. At Waemok Village you can see the sunrise, the sunset, and even the moonrise!

From Solmoe Shrine, where Father Andrew Kim Tae-gon was born, to red-brick Hapdeok Catholic Church: this place runs deep with Catholic history.

Myeoncheon has a walled town built under King Sejong, and Songak has the house where Sim Hun wrote "Evergreen" (Sangnoksu).
